

10am - 4pm on Thursday 10th November - AFC Bournemouth, Dorset

Greenmessage and The Passionate PA are pleased to announce the launch of The Sustainable Business Exhibition, the South's first dedicated Business to Business exhibition focussing on improving environmental sustainability and reducing business wastages in all areas.

The event is being held on Thursday 10th November between 10am and 4pm at AFC Bournemouth. Entry is free to all visitors.

Aimed at all SME's across the South, our purpose is to bring together the region's environment and sustainability professionals and give them a platform for demonstrating the changes that can be made to help improve a business's 'green credentials'.

The exhibition is the place to be if you are considering a more sustainable operating model for the future.

The exhibition will give all attendees:

The opportunity to meet with environment and sustainability professionals to discuss case studies and best practice as well as the options available to suit them and their business.

Expert advice on how energy and resource efficiencies can produce cost savings.
A display of some of the leading sustainable business solutions available today.
The knowledge of how to improve their "green" credentials when marketing their products/services giving them an important edge over their competitors.
