

9 November, Assembly Rooms, Bath - BOOK NOW

Are you attending Renewable Futures and the South West Green Energy Awards, the premier south west renewable energy event?

With over 500 of the industry's most influential individuals covering every renewable technology and leading customers from both the private and public sector, this is a must attend event providing unrivalled opportunities to network and build partnerships.

Conference programme

The renewable sector is an exciting place to be with strong growth - but to succeed in 2012 companies need to be one step ahead of the rapidly changing policy.

Renewable Futures features a stellar line up of speakers examining what the government is planning, the impact this will have on the market and how growth can be financed.

Speakers include:

Richard Vianello, head Renewables Obligation, DECC
Alasdair Grainger, lead FiT review, DECC
Juliet Davenport, CEO, Good Energy
Philip Selwood, chief executive, Energy Saving Trust
Richard Simon-Lewis, senior director, Renewable Energy, Lloyds Bank Corporate Markets
Jonathan Johns, director, Climate Change Matters
Martin Simpson, head of technology and projects, The Crown Estate
Chris Morrison, head of commercial, British Gas New Energy
View the full programme online at renewablefutures.co.uk

www.regensw.co.uk/events/regen-sw-events-/renewable-futures-

Unrivalled Exhibition opportunities

We have a few remaining 3m exhibition stands to promote your company as a leading player in renewable energy. Exhibition stands can start from as little as £225 + VAT for a 1m pop up and include a conference ticket. Exhibitors include leading companies such as Dalkia; Osborne Clarke; Naturalwatt; Fair Energy; Econergy; Wardell Armstrong; Solarsense UK; Environ UK; Ikaros Solar; Smith & Williamson; Vertdegree Ltd and Sungift Solar

If you would like to find out how to make the most of this event please contact Rachel Hayes, events and membership manager, Regen SW. rhayes@regensw.co.uk