The UK’s first category-3 licensed waste plant able to transform AD and blood plastics into a clean secondary material for remanufacturing is in its final stages of commissioning. And the pioneering facility promises to be zero waste from day one.

The 4-acre site in East Yorkshire is a joint venture between Recyk and Meplas.

Demand And Reward Success That Drives Profitability And Revenue For Ourselves And Brand
Create A Working Environment That Allows Individuals To Excel In Their Given Role Supply Products And S mprove Our Customers Profitability

www.untha.co.uk